

Lena Stamenković in the Junior Eurovision Song Contest

Radio Television of Serbia has decided that eleven year old Lena Stamenković will be representing Serbia at the Junior Eurovision Song Contest in Bulgaria this year with the composition "Lenina pesma" (Lena's Song).

Even as a baby Lena displayed interest in music. She enrolled at the Elementary Music School in 2012. She now attends the fourth grade, she plays the piano and sings in a choir. She enchants the public with her charm, spontaneity and honesty. Not only does Lena have an exceptional voice and talent, she also exudes positive energy. She sings with authentic emotion. Serbian public knows her as the participant of the children's talent show where she took the fourth place.

The song with which Lena will represent Serbia in Sofia is soon to be published. Music for the composition "Lenina pesma" was written by Leontina Vukomanović. Lyrics were written by Lena Stamenković and Leontina Vukomanović, and the song was arranged by Dušan Alagić.

Junior Eurovision Song Contest 2015 will be held in Bulgaria on November 21st with the slogan "Discover". The symbol of this year's Junior Contest is the "Technological Flower" based on the idea of a dandelion being blown - something that everyone has done as a child, as described by the organizers.

Besides Serbia, another fourteen countries have confirmed their participation - Albania, Armenia, Belarus, Bulgaria, FYR of Macedonia, Georgia, Italy, Ireland, Malta, Montenegro, Russia, Slovenia, Netherlands and Ukraine.
