

Dunja Jeličić

Born in Belgrade on November 11th 2003.

As a child she showed interest for music and reacted to the every tone and sang and danced to the rhythm of music.

At the age of six she became a member of the children's choir "Čarolija" with which she performed many concerts as a soloist.

She was a contestant in the competition 'Prvi srpski talenat' (First Talents of Serbia).

In 2014, she competed in a big talent show for children ("Pinkove zvezdice") where she made it to the semifinals with amazing scores. She won the love of the audience with her flourishing vocals and sincerity. She is now in seventh grade of elementary school and also goes to music school where she is in fifth grade playing the piano.

She took part in the music festival "Čarolija".

At the annual competition "Zlatna sirena" she won several first places in different categories and genres.

She enjoys different music genres, pop, rock, r'n'b...

Her favorite performers are Beyoncé, Ariana Grande and many more.

Dunja has a wide range of interests and is very creative. She likes art and swimming.

Music and acting are talents she possesses and which she aspires to continue developing in the future.

She is currently engaged in preparing the musical based on the life of Nikola Tesla "Tesla: The Secret of Electropy" (Tesla: Tajna Elektropije) where she will be playing one of the leading rolls.